CENTRAL UNITED CHURCH

Consent to Use and Disclose Personal Information
Central United Church Music Ministry
Effective Date: September 1, 2026 – August 31, 2027

In accordance with the FOIP (Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act) and the Copyright Act, Central United Church requests consent for various purposes, as outlined below. Consent is voluntary and can be revoked at any time by notifying the Ministry Leader in writing. If you do not return this form it indicates refusal to consent. If you have concerns regarding these matters, please contact the Music Director, Oksana Krasnozhen.

1. Website, Facebook and Instagram Usage

Central United Church on occasion posts photos to share what is being done in the Central Music Ministry. Your consent is requested to use your photograph or performance on our church website and/or on our Central United Church Facebook and Instagram page. Please be advised that in the context of ordinary internet use, images and videos may be copied, altered or moved by anyone who visits these websites; and if your consent is withdrawn, the church will remove the file from our sites, however, it may be available elsewhere on the internet indefinitely.

I consent to the above use of personal information: YES ___ NO ___

2. YouTube and Facebook Livestream

On occasion, Central United Church might livestream a service or event to YouTube or Facebook, where they remain available for public viewing indefinitely. Central will usually have the Music Ministry participating in these events. Please note that in this context, your performance may be visible to all those who search for and view these services. Due to the nature of streaming services, if your consent is withdrawn, we will do our best to remove the media, but we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so. Your consent is requested to use your performances for this purpose.

I consent to the above use of personal information: YES ___ NO ___
